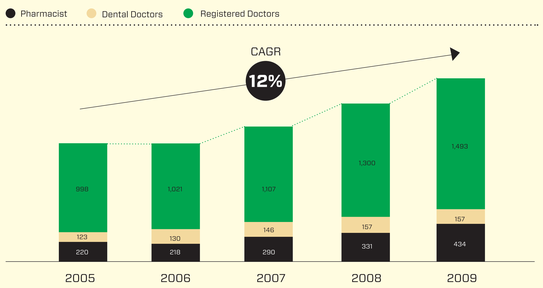
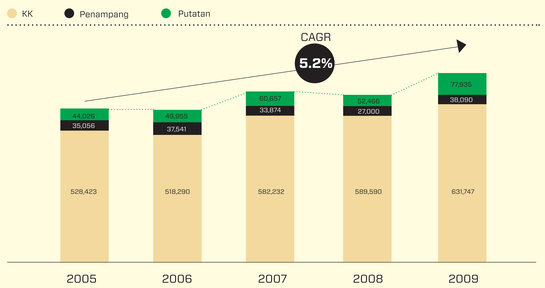
HEALTHCARE

Number of registered medical professionals in Sabah has been on the rise...



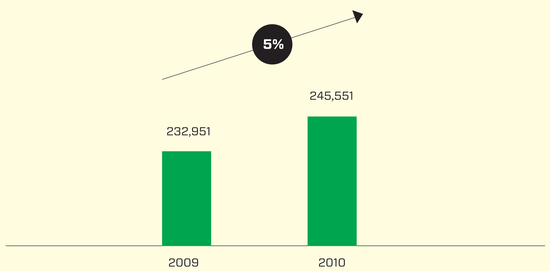
Source : JKN / Department Statistics

...to cope with the increasing number of outpatients in Government hospitals in Greater KK



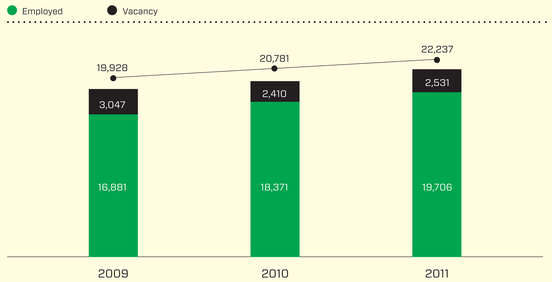
Source : JKN / Department Statistics

At the same time, the number patients treated in Government Health Clinics in Greater KK also registered a 5% increase



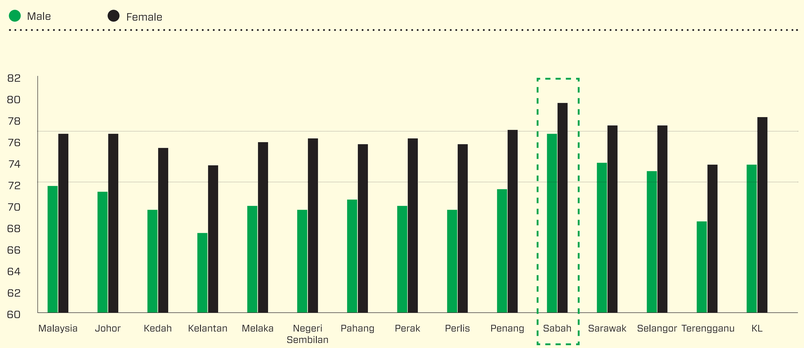
Source : JKN / Department Statistics

The number of employees by Department of Health in Sabah



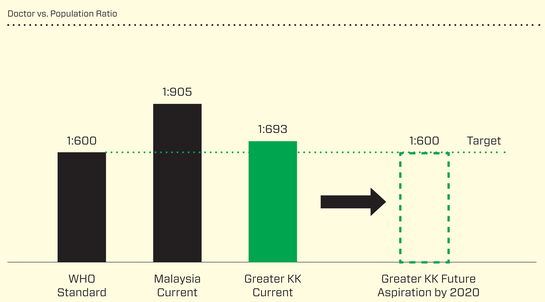
Source : JKN

Life expectancy in Sabah is the highest in Malaysia. People in Sabah live longer than the national average



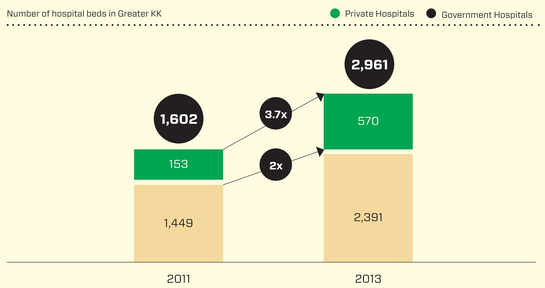
Source : JKN / Department Statistics

Doctor to population ratio in Greater KK is much better compared to the current average Malaysian standard



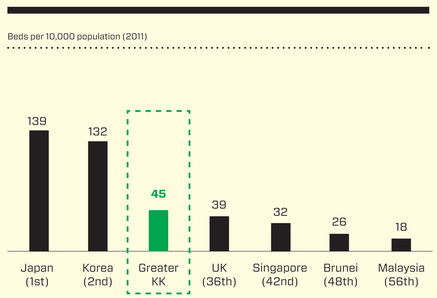
Source : Lab Analysis, Bernama, DOS and JKN. Greater KK Covers Kota Kinabalu, Penampang, Putatan

We expect the number of beds in Greater KK to almost double by 2013

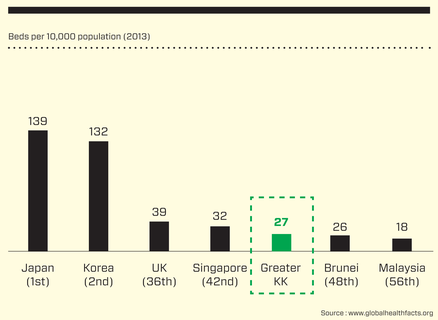


Source : JKN

By 2013, the beds per population ratio will increase by 67% with the current on-going projects



Source : www.globalhealthfacts.org



Source : www.globalhealthfacts.org

Bed per 10,000 population

2013 = 45 beds

67% increase

2011 = 27 beds

Greater KK is seeing a positive growth in Healthcare driven by Government and Private sector in the next 2 years

	2011		2013
Beds	1,694	2x	2,961
Doctors	908	1.3x	1,209 (with 10% annual influx)
Greater KK Population	629,943	1.1x	676,793 (given 2.4% annually)